PROCEEDINGS OF THE MID-YEAR SESSION OF THE WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Held With the Baptist Grove Baptist Church Near Raleigh, North Carolina

The Mid-Year Session of the Wake Baptist Association met with the Baptist Grove Baptist Church, The Reverend William A. Perry, Pastor, on Sunday, March 30, 1952. A short devotional was lead by Mrs. I. H. Leathers and Mrs. Odessa Turner. "Since Jesus Came into My Heart" was sung for the opening selection, nine verses of the 18th Chapter of Matthew was read for the Scripture. Mrs. Mollie Dunston offered the prayer. After the devotionals, Mrs. Dunston stated that she was thankful to be present for the Mid-Year session, for she was unable to attend the session at Fuquay Springs because of illness.

Mrs. Ellen Powell was asked to present the speaker of the hour, in the person of Mrs. Ellen Austin, the Executive Secretary of the Woman's Convention of North Carolina. Mrs. Austin came forward and thanked the women for their support for missions and Christian Education through the past years.

Mrs. Austin then gave a brief summary of her trip to Africa. She first described her trip, she stated that the group left New York by plane, one of the largest in the world, weighing 17 tons and traveling at a speed of 370 miles per hour. In thirty hours the group had landed in Monrovia where the party was presented to President Tubman, President of the Republic. The speaker then went on to point out some of the opportunities for missionary work in Africa. She stated that there were large sections of Africa which still believe in superstition. (2) Large lepor colonies were to be found in abundance. (3) Some Chiefs had as many as fifty wives. These situations just mention was a real challenge to missionary minded men and women.

The body adjourned for dinner.

The afternoon session was opened by music by the Olive Branch Choir. The Reverend Clyde B. Walton read 14 verses of the 10th Chapter of John for the Scripture. The prayer was offered by Reverend John Parks. "O Master Let Me Walk with Thee," was the next selection sung by the Choir. The speaker for the occasion, Rev. S. L. Suitt, came forward and announced his text from Titus 1:9 "Holding fast the faith word as he has been taught." The speaker suggested the following: Paul was taught at home, so must we be taught at home. Paul was taught in the traditions of the Fathers, we must be taught in race appreciation. Finally we need to stick to Christ. Paul met Christ on his way to Damascus. The choir sang, "Lift Him Up."

An offering was taken following the sermon. See Financial Report.

The Reverend A. A. Crum was presented to the Association as the new pastor of Malaby's Cross Road Baptist Church.

At this time the Moderator, Reverend Stokes presented all officers of the United Association: Rev. Horton of Minister's Deacon's Union, Mrs. Mollie Dunston of Woman's Auxiliary and Mr. Leroy Burton of the B. T. U. Convention, who also spoke in behalf of the allied bodies.

We are asking the members of the bodies to give a rising vote of thanks for the hospitality which was shown us.

Proceedings of the Eighty-Sixth Annual Session

WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Vice Moderator, the Reverend C. H. Heath, called the Eighty-Sixth Annual Session of the Wake Baptist Association to order at 10:30 A. M. Rev. A. A. Anderson let the opening selection and read twelve verses of the 16th chapter of Luke for the Scripture. The prayer was offered by Reverend Millard Jones. Reverend Jones also sang, "My God That Springs from all My Joy." After brief remarks by Reverend Anderson, and Reverend Heath, The Reverend Mr. W. W. Faulcon made the welcome address. He stated that the members and friends of New Providence has been looking forward to time when the Association would be their guest, and that they were welcome to every facility which the church had provided for their comfort.

The Reverend Alexander Terrell responded to the welcome on behalf of the Association. The next item to claim our attention was a topic, "Christianizing the World Through the Home," led by Reverend C. C. Jones. He stated that the home was the foundation of our Christian work. Above every other institution, the home should be Christian, parents and children alike.

The congregation sang, "Amazing Grace," after which Reverend G. W. Watkins read the 24th Psalm. Reverend Suitt offered prayer. Reverend T. A. Watkins of the First Baptist Church, Wilson came to bring us the message of the hour. His subject was, "How May We Succeed in Christianizing the World?" The speaker's text was taken from John 1:34, "And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God." and John 3:30, "He must increase, but I must decrease." The speaker pointed out the fact that we must have a conviction that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God. We are but instruments through which God works, therefore, we must decrease as did John the Baptist but, Christ will increase. The speaker delivered a very thoughtful and forceful message.

After the sermon Brother Robert Haskin and B. W. Lane lifted the offering.

Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon Session was opened by the Reverend O. H. Broadie who led in singing, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Reverend Clyde B. Walton read twelve verses of the 14th Chapter of John. Brother L. Bridges offered the prayer. Hymn 286, 'My Hope is Built on Nothing Less," in the Baptist Standard Hymnal, was sung as the next selection. Reverend Heath presented Reverend Stokes who came forward to bring his annual message. He. stated that it was at New Providence Baptist Church that the late Reverend Dr. N. F. Roberts resigned and the association elected him as the new clerk. The Moderator advised us to commit ourselves to the following: (1) Each Christian help win souls for Christ. (2) We should set a standard of Christian Giving. (3) That all pastors teach our Covenant to our members. (4) Stress the importance of getting our children in Sunday School. (5) Support our Baptist School (6) Support General Baptist Convention (7) The Association meet in an extra session.

After the Moderator's Address was delivered, Dr. Bullock motioned that the Moderator's address be adopted as a whole. This motion was carried.

The Sisters came forward to take over for the remainder of the time Wednesday afternoon. After the selection, "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." Brief remarks were voiced by Mrs. Corinna Dunn and Mrs. F. B. Holt on the Place of Mothers in Christianizing the World. Mrs. Mollie Dunston made her address to the Association. Others who made remarks were Mrs Odessa Lane, Miss Penny Perry and Mrs. Trice.

Because Dr. Strassner, President of Shaw University, could not be present on Thursday, he delivered his message at this time on the program. He emphasized "The Place of the Christian College in Christianizing the World." The speaker suggested that there is no singleness of purpose in the world, that there is a great clash between two idelogies, Russia and America. In a situation like this the Christian College must educate boys and girls for leadership. Dr. Strassner's remarks were very, very stimulating.

The Committee on officers made its report at this time. It was motioned by Brother S. M. McCullers that the report will be adopted. The motion prevailed. Another motion prevailed that the Executive Committee succeed itself and that Brother H. C. High be added to the Committee. This was passed also.

An offering was taken to the amount of $13.85.

Adjournment.

August 13, 1952

The devotionals for Thursday were conducted by Rev. W. A. Perry, Rev. Avery Horton and Rev. White. "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less." Twelve verses of the 3rd Chapter of Matthew was read for the Scripture. Rev. Horton offered the prayer. "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross, was the concluding number.

The next item to claim our atttention was the topic, "Christianizing the World through the Church," with emphasis on the Officer's Task was led by Dr. O. S. Bullock. We have but two Bibical offices in the Baptist Church the speaker said, pastors, and deacons, and both have the task to help in making the world Christian. In the absence of Mr. C. W. Foster of Wilson, Mr. H. M. Fitts suggested that the membership had a part to play in making the world Christian. Mr. J. W. Yeargin made brief remarks.

The Choir sang, "What A Friend We Have in Jesus," after which Dr. Bullock presented Dr. Wendell C. Somerville to bring the special message on Missions. Dr. Somerville's topic was "The Role of Foreign Mission in a Changing World." The speaker stated that our members do not have a world wide view of missions, and in this respect we have let Jesus Down. He gave us some of his experiences on the recent African Trip. He concluded by giving the life of Reverend William DeWitt Burton, our missionary to Liberia as an example.
